PRESS RELEASE

2018 Food Fight to Pack 3.5 Million Meals

DC Community United in Fighting Hunger

Washington, DC— April 4, 2018—On May 4-6, 2018, at the Dulles Expo Center (Chantilly, VA), 20,000 volunteers from the DC area will be packing bags of food to feed 3.5 MILLION meals to starving children around the world—enough to feed 9,589 children for one year. New Hope Church in Lorton, VA, is organizing this event in collaboration with Feed My Starving Children, a 4-Star Charity Navigator hunger relief organization. Register to volunteer here. Packing sessions are scheduled throughout the day: May 4 from 9:30 am to 10:00 pm; May 5 from 9:00 am to 10:00 pm; May 6 from 9:00 am to 5:30 pm.

How does the packing work? During each 2.5 hour shift, volunteers measure cups of rice, soy flakes, dehydrated vegetables and vitamin powder into plastic bags, seal them up and pack them into boxes and pallets. The packed food is sent to reputable organizations on the ground in desperately hungry countries--as well as sent to Puerto Rico for hurricane relief and to feed Syrian refugees all over the world. The food is specially formulated for starving children and is sufficient nutrition for one meal a day. Each meal costs only 22 cents!

According to Kim Feld, 2018 Food Fight event manager, “We don’t even know yet where the food will be going because we aim to reach the most urgent need at the moment.” During the 2016 Food Fight, the packed food was sent to a devastated Haiti, Somalia, Nicaragua and Uganda. She adds, “Last time, we even had people who grew up on this food in their native countries volunteer to pack—the blessing came around full-circle!”

2018 Food Fight is a fun family activity, and individuals of any age are welcome. It's also an excellent service project for scout troops, clubs, office groups, religious and service organizations, sports teams—any group that would like to help save a child's life. We have jobs for folks of all abilities—from labeling bags to hoisting heavy boxes—in an exciting atmosphere of loud music and crazy games.

There is no charge to participate. Donations of canned goods for Capital Area Food Bank and financial gifts toward the 2018 Food Fight ingredients will be gladly accepted. Gifts created by native artisans will be available at The MarketPlace—proceeds fund the artisans and FMSC. We are also seeking event sponsors; read the benefits of 2018 Food Fight sponsorship here.
